

Photo by Mike Truitt

Dr. Buchanan can vote on BOH

By Mike Truitt
 Contributing Writer
 mtruitt@timesfree.com

When the 11th Circuit Board of Health began drafting its new rules of conduct, some members were also interested in new rules on the member.

When Dr. Martin Buchanan, executive director of the health department, started drafting new rules governing the conduct of the health department, some

Dr. Martin Buchanan, executive director of the health department, started drafting new rules governing the conduct of the health department, some

Board of Health splits on bar curfew vote

By Mike Truitt
 Contributing Writer
 mtruitt@timesfree.com

Although the 11th Circuit Board of Health is voting on curfew rules, some members are also interested in new rules on the member.

When Dr. Martin Buchanan, executive director of the health department, started drafting new rules governing the conduct of the health department, some

When the 11th Circuit Board of Health began drafting its new rules of conduct, some members were also interested in new rules on the member.

When the 11th Circuit Board of Health began drafting its new rules of conduct, some members were also interested in new rules on the member.

When the 11th Circuit Board of Health began drafting its new rules of conduct, some members were also interested in new rules on the member.

The 11th Circuit Board of Health is voting on curfew rules, some members are also interested in new rules on the member.

When the 11th Circuit Board of Health began drafting its new rules of conduct, some members were also interested in new rules on the member.

When the 11th Circuit Board of Health began drafting its new rules of conduct, some members were also interested in new rules on the member.

When the 11th Circuit Board of Health began drafting its new rules of conduct, some members were also interested in new rules on the member.

When the 11th Circuit Board of Health began drafting its new rules of conduct, some members were also interested in new rules on the member.

When the 11th Circuit Board of Health began drafting its new rules of conduct, some members were also interested in new rules on the member.

Continued on page 11