

Photos by Mike Stealy

county and state officials. One officer arrested by his private bicycle to honor those killed in the attack.

received for 2020. The group has a motorcycle protest outside the Andrew Johnson building during the KCS board meeting.

Jenkins, a parent from Farragut, said she had a child in kindergarten at Farragut Primary School and another in seventh grade at Farragut Middle School. "I urge you to keep schools open and in-person," Jenkins said. "I know that a lot of these decisions are being driven by the (Knox County) Board of Health, and I hope the board (of education) is pushing back against them, and pushing back to see why they're making the decisions they're making."

"I've analyzed the numbers and the numbers don't justify (the schools) being closed."

Jenkins also noted that her son in the seventh grade is friends with a high school freshman at Farragut, who chose to utilize the virtual model.

"One of my son's friends is a ninth grader and he chose virtual," Jenkins said. "He is very lonely and he has three virtual classes a week and that's it."

"He's feeling pressure because he feels like the

Continue on page 4

Dr. Buchanan can vote on BOH

By Mike Stealy
Senior Writer
stealy@knoxnews.com

When the Knox County Board of Health began adopting its own rules of procedure last week, there was one additional, and

Board of Health splits on bar curfew vote

By Mike Stealy
Senior Writer
stealy@knoxnews.com

Although Bill Chancellor, Donnie Phippsman is calling college is preparing one of the on-campus dorms and the nearby Holiday Inn to house the increasing number of positive test-

Dr. Buchanan said violations of the curfew by some bars was like "Whack-A-Mole" because when some have obeyed the curfew enforcement on board," Dr. O'Brien said. Knox County Sheriff Tom Spangler has stated his department will not enforce health depart-