

Area teams, fans reach Week 5

Members of the Fulton High School Cubes County team make a line to present the colors of the national flag of the United States prior to Friday night's baseball game against Kennesaw. The high school season has many things that have yet to get out of the starting gate because of the pandemic. The school year at the end of the regular season last week. Please see page 10 for more details on the season and schedule to figure out the season. (Fulton County) (Fulton County)

PARC reports hurt by COVID-19, computer attack

By the way, the PARC reports that the COVID-19 pandemic has hurt the company's revenue. The company also reports that it has been hit by a computer attack.

The PARC company, which is a leading provider of software for the construction industry, has reported that its revenue has been hurt by the COVID-19 pandemic. The company also reports that it has been hit by a computer attack.

The attack, which occurred in the company's cloud-based system, was a ransomware attack. The company has paid the ransom and is working to recover the data. The company also reports that it has been hit by a computer attack.

The company has also reported that it has been hit by a computer attack. The company has paid the ransom and is working to recover the data. The company also reports that it has been hit by a computer attack.

The company has also reported that it has been hit by a computer attack. The company has paid the ransom and is working to recover the data. The company also reports that it has been hit by a computer attack.

The company has also reported that it has been hit by a computer attack. The company has paid the ransom and is working to recover the data. The company also reports that it has been hit by a computer attack.

All bars, restaurants serving alcohol must close at 11 p.m.

By the way, the PARC reports that the COVID-19 pandemic has hurt the company's revenue. The company also reports that it has been hit by a computer attack.

The PARC company, which is a leading provider of software for the construction industry, has reported that its revenue has been hurt by the COVID-19 pandemic.

The company also reports that it has been hit by a computer attack. The company has paid the ransom and is working to recover the data.

The company has also reported that it has been hit by a computer attack. The company has paid the ransom and is working to recover the data.