

right at the school before the night session meeting at the library (Union Halling).

"I wanted those four students to know that we are not just a school, we are a community," Thomas said. "I made a challenge and we have been going on."

"I wanted to make sure that they were able to make it to the point where they were all successful in their own way," Thomas said. "I wanted to make sure that they were all successful in their own way."

"I wanted to make sure that they were all successful in their own way," Thomas said. "I wanted to make sure that they were all successful in their own way."

"I wanted to make sure that they were all successful in their own way," Thomas said. "I wanted to make sure that they were all successful in their own way."

"I wanted to make sure that they were all successful in their own way," Thomas said. "I wanted to make sure that they were all successful in their own way."

"I wanted to make sure that they were all successful in their own way," Thomas said. "I wanted to make sure that they were all successful in their own way."

"I wanted to make sure that they were all successful in their own way," Thomas said. "I wanted to make sure that they were all successful in their own way."

Continued on page 2

Top: Halls High Road to Fame project. Middle: Halls High Road to Fame project. Bottom: Halls High Road to Fame project.

Halls High Road to Fame's Class of 2020 has quality

By Steve Williams

The second class of the Halls High Road to Fame project is now being inducted into the Halls High Road to Fame project.

The second class of the Halls High Road to Fame project is now being inducted into the Halls High Road to Fame project.

The second class of the Halls High Road to Fame project is now being inducted into the Halls High Road to Fame project.

The second class of the Halls High Road to Fame project is now being inducted into the Halls High Road to Fame project.

The second class of the Halls High Road to Fame project is now being inducted into the Halls High Road to Fame project.

The second class of the Halls High Road to Fame project is now being inducted into the Halls High Road to Fame project.

'Fall in Love With South High'

And Roma selected as citizens